Colorectal Surgeon Job Summary

Beacon Medical group is actively pursuing a BC/BE and fellowship trained Colorectal Surgeon that will have the opportunity to focus their practice one of two different ways. The first option would be a practice limited to Colon and Rectal surgery cases including endoscopy, minimally invasive surgical procedures, elective and emergency procedures. The second option would allow the incoming surgeon to engage in a meticulously balanced mix of colorectal and general surgery cases (60/40), gradually transitioning towards an exclusive emphasis on colorectal cases.

Our colorectal surgeon will benefit from an excellent and cooperative relationship with GI that work hand in hand with all of our surgeons.

This provider will have the opportunity to work with 13 skilled surgeons and additional Advanced Practice Providers

The right candidate will be committed to driving a quality colorectal program and holding all physicians, APPs, and staff accountable to the quality initiatives within the program.

Professional Growth Opportunities: Yes

About the Practice

Our Colorectal Surgeon will be anchored by a dynamic team of 13 surgeons and have a robust collaboration with a multidisciplinary team consisting of medical oncology, radiation oncology, gynecologic oncology, and orthopedic oncology.

Beacon Cancer Care began a transformational journey in 2023 to foster a robust subspecialty cancer program providing high-quality care and a range of treatment services not currently available in our local market. Committed to achieve this vision, a tactical roadmap has been developed which considers the fundamental building blocks of our program. The recruitment of a fellowship trained colorectal surgeon is a defining milestone in the expansion of our subspecialized cancer services that are offered.

Beacon's Cancer Care's vision is expanding as the recognized premier cancer center in northern Indiana and southwestern Michigan, by offering access to patient-centered, comprehensive, and coordinated services of the highest quality.

Beacon Cancer Care also houses the largest group of board-certified cancer care providers in Northern Indiana and Southwestern Michigan.

We offer a complete spectrum of services including:

- Hematology/Oncology
- Radiation Oncology
- Cancer Surgery
- Pediatric Hematology Oncology
- Orthopedic Oncology
- Gynecologic Oncology

Beacon Cancer Care takes a comprehensive approach to cancer treatment to deliver the highest quality of care, using cutting-edge technology to diagnose and treat cancer.

Our Physician-led oncology program empowers our patients and their families to receive multi-disciplinary treatment close to home.
