I.6. MEDICAL RECORDS

The electronic distribution of Protected Health Information (PHI), as is required in the day-to-day practice of medicine, shall be effected only through encrypted, HIPAA compliant mechanisms. In order to ensure compliance with this requirement and to ensure reliable and efficient communications among Beacon Health System medical personnel, all providers with Clinical Privileges (Physicians and APPs) shall utilize a Beacon Health System approved communication application when transmitting Beacon associated PHI. Halo is presently the approved application, and all providers with Clinical Privileges shall maintain access to this application. This shall also apply to Practitioners with Refer and Follow Privileges if they utilize electronic communication of PHI.
